

The Honorable James L. Robart

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

NO. CR17-0181JLR

Plaintiff,

PROTECTIVE ORDER REGARDING DISCOVERY MATERIALS

V.

DEVAUGHN DORSEY,

Defendant.

11. What is the primary purpose of the following statement?

This matter came before the Court on the government's unopposed Motion for Protective Order. The Court finds that good cause has been shown and orders as follows:

1. This Protective Order governs all discovery material in any format (written or electronic) that is produced by the government in the above-captioned case and that pertains to Renton Police Department incident 17-5136 (“Protected Material”).

2. The United States will make copies of the Protected Material available to defense counsel. Possession of copies of the Protected Material is limited to the attorneys of record, investigators, paralegals, law clerks, experts and assistants for the attorneys of record (hereinafter collectively referred to as members of the defense team).

1 3. The attorneys of record and members of the defense team may display and
2 review the Protected Material with the defendant, but may not leave any Protected
3 Material with him.

4 4. The defendant, attorneys of record and members of the defense team
5 acknowledge that providing copies of the Protected Material to persons outside of the 6 defense team is prohibited, and agree not to provide copies of the Protected Material to 7 persons outside of the defense team.

8 5. The defense may petition the Court to request modification or termination
9 of the Protective Order upon further review of the Protected Material.

10 6. Upon further review of the Protected Material, the defense may request that 11 selected items of Protected Material be copied and provided to the defendant. Such 12 selected items may not be copied and provided to the defendant without prior written
13 approval from the United States or a court order that modifies or terminates this 14 Protective Order.

15 7. Nothing in this order should be construed as imposing any discovery
16 obligations on the government or the defendant that are different from those imposed by 17 case law and Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and the Local Criminal 18 Rules.

19 8. Any Protected Material that is filed with the Court in connection with pre-
20 trial motions, trial, sentencing, or other matter before this Court, shall be filed under seal
21 and shall remain sealed until otherwise ordered by this Court. This does not entitle either
22 party to seal their filings as a matter of course. The parties are required to comply in all 23 respects to the relevant local and federal rules of criminal procedure pertaining to the 24 sealing of court documents.

25 9. The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this 26 prosecution.

1 10. Any violation of any term or condition of this Order by the Defendant, his
2 attorney(s) of record, any member of the defense team, or any attorney for the United
3 States Attorney's Office for the Western District of Washington, may be held in contempt
4 of court, and/or may be subject to monetary or other sanctions as deemed appropriate by 5 this Court.

6 11. If the Defendant violates any term or condition of this Order, the United 7 States reserves its right to seek a sentencing enhancement for obstruction of justice, or to 8 file any criminal charges relating to the Defendant's violation.

9

10 DATED this 10th day of August, 2017.
